Chapter 1 by Watchdog

I hear the police sirens getting closer as I evade the bullets. Then i see a light and I hear the sound of blades going faster than A fan. I look up and see a helicopter with a sniper aiming right toward me. i get my phone out and go into the Ctos network and blackout the whole entire area the police lose track of me. I get in a car I notice its a electronic car I hack it and it starts Then i see police cars rolling across the street I turn the car headlights off.

I go on my phone I call my anonymous colleague. He says "good job Aiden we got the data we need soon your family will be free in no time if you keep this up." I say "Can I talk to amanda." he says "Sure you earned it." I say " how are you?" she says"im fine aiden just hurry theirs something big going down." Then the anonymous person says "ok times up." he says so aiden you know what I want." I try to stall him while I track his phone He says nice try Aiden then hangs up the phone I cry in anger Then I put my foot on the gas pedal and left the scene. My Phone starts to ring the title says Dedsec I put a voice changer on my phone and put my face mask that was on my neck I think "what are the best wanted fugitive hackers calling a vigilante for?"

The black van looks as if it was getting closer to me so I speed up and little did I know.....so was he. He hit my bumper giving me a jerk. Hitting me head on the steering wheel I lifted my head. There were 2 people walking toward me but at the time I knew they had found me. They have been getting suspicious of me like they knew what I was doing. I was helping the other side. Being stuck in this organization was hard. To steal information from the government and spread it to take out the president. The current president was Ceurt Brule. I never said that I liked him but what they were going to do is much worse. Worse than taking over the United States. At this thought worry shivered up my spine not willing to stop until it reached the top. I stopped to think about the present and what was going to happen next. I wasn't strong in any way or form so how am I supposed to beat these strong people at. I thought for a minute then realized I actually could think. I remembered the taser in the back but was a little wary about using it because it would contact the Organization that I had to use force but it was my only option. Then he hit my window making a crack appear.....
